

New Jersey Estimated Game Bird Harvest, 1985-2003
Year	Pheasant	Quail	Chukar	Crow¹	American Woodcock	Ruffed Grouse	Wild Turkey²
1985-86	326,898	135,415				28,539	220
1986-87	305,908	141,486				35,213	334
1987-88	184,314	104,584				23,225	356
1988-89	272,694	76,871				15,836	485
1989-90							445
1990-91	346,268	82,228			9,113	14,660	549
1991-92							650
1992-93	369,636	120,642			16,487	12,230	877
1993-94	310,349	98,748			13,608	10,060	1,023
1994-95	308,332	103,475			13,230	9,385	1,411
1995-96	400,281	97,497			14,003	11,543	1,582
1996-97	340,976	61,872			16,428	12,779	2,007
1997-98	291,259	99,217			11,212	3,990	2,201 ³
1998-99							2,524 ⁴
1999-00	290,092	104,625	31,415	16,701	13,460	2,853	2,721 ⁵
2000-01							2,919 ⁶
2001-02	371,085	121,082	52,962	53,989	16,269	6,829	3,640 ⁷
2002-03							3,987 ⁸
2003-04	114,560	26,675	33,912	12,247	2,477	606	3,729 ⁹

¹ Crow hunting has occurred since 1973 (Burke, personal communication, 2001).

² Actual harvest figures as reported annually at official checking stations.

³ Includes 167 birds harvested during the fall either-sex season (three-day segment).

⁴ Includes 152 birds harvested during the fall either-sex season (three-day segment).

⁵ Includes 151 birds harvested during the fall either-sex season (three-day segment).

⁶ Includes 239 birds harvested during the fall either-sex season (two, three-day segments).

⁷ Includes 258 birds harvested during the fall either-sex season (two, three-day segments).

⁸ Includes 208 birds harvested during the fall either-sex season (one, six-day segment).

⁹ Includes 179 birds harvested during the fall either-sex season (one, six-day segment).